2. Definitions

Sexual Assault and Sexual Violence

Sexual Assault: A criminal offense under the Criminal Code of Canada. Sexual assault is any type of unwanted sexual act done by one person to another that violates the sexual integrity of the victim and involves a range of behaviors from any unwanted touching to penetration. Sexual assault is characterized by a broad range of behaviours that involve the use of force, threats, or control towards a person, which makes that person feel uncomfortable, distressed, frightened, threatened, or that is carried out in circumstances in which the person has not freely agreed, consented to, or is incapable of consenting to.

Sexual Violence: Any sexual act or act targeting a person’s sexuality, gender identity, or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person’s consent and includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism and sexual exploitation.

Consent: The voluntary and explicit agreement to engage in the sexual activity in question. It is the act of willingly agreeing to engage in the specific sexual behavior, and requires that a person is able to choose between two options: yes and no freely. This means that there must be an Understandable exchange of affirmative words, which indicates a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity.

It is also imperative that everyone understands the following additional information:

- Silence or non-communication must never be interpreted as consent, and a person in a state of diminished judgment cannot consent.

- A person is incapable of giving consent if they are asleep, unconscious, incapacitated or otherwise unable to communicate.
- A person who has been threatened or coerced (i.e. is not agreeing voluntarily) into engaging in the sexual activity is not consenting to it.
- A person who is drugged is unable to consent.
- A person may be unable to give consent when she/he is impaired by and/or under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs.
- A person may be unable to give consent if they have a mental disability preventing them from fully understanding the sexual acts.
- The fact that consent was given in the past to a sexual or dating relationship does not mean that consent is deemed to exist for all future sexual activity.
- A person can withdraw consent at any time during the course of a sexual encounter.
- A person may be incapable of giving consent to a person in a position of trust, power or authority.
 - Any sexual relationship between an employee and a student, where the employee teaches or has professional contact with the student as part of their employment responsibilities, is prohibited.
 - Any sexual relationship between an employee with supervising responsibilities and an employee who reports to them, directly or indirectly, must be reported to their manager and Human Resources who will work with the parties to address any potential conflict of interest.
- Consent cannot be given on behalf of another person.

It is the responsibility of the initiator of sexual activity to ensure clear and affirmative responses are communicated at all stages of sexual engagement. It is also the initiator's responsibility to know if the person they are engaging with sexually is a minor.

Workplace Sexual Harassment: This means engaging in a course of vexatious comments or conduct against a worker in a workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome or making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant, or deny a benefit or advancement to the worker and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome.

Other Relevant Terms

Acquaintance sexual assault: Sexual contact that is forced, manipulated, or coerced by a partner, friend or acquaintance.

Age of consent for sexual activity: The age at which a person can legally consent to sexual activity. In Canada, children under 12 can never legally consent to sexual acts. Sixteen is the legal age of consent for sexual acts. There are variations on the age of consent for adolescents who are close in age between the ages of 12 and 16. Twelve and 13 year-olds can consent to have sex with other youth who are less than 2 years older than themselves. Youth who are 14 and 15 years old may consent to sexual involvement that is mutual with a person who is less than 5 years older. Youths 16 and 17 years old may legally consent to sexual acts with someone who is not in a position of trust or authority.

Coercion: In the context of sexual violence, coercion is unreasonable and persistent pressure for sexual activity. Coercion is the use of emotional manipulation, blackmail, threats to family or friends, or the promise of rewards or special treatment, to persuade someone to do something they do not wish to do, such as being sexual or performing particular sexual acts.

Drug-facilitated sexual assault: The use of alcohol and/or drugs (prescription or not- prescription) by a perpetrator to control, overpower or subdue a victim for purposes of sexual assault.

Stalking: A form of criminal harassment prohibited by the Criminal Code of Canada. It involves behaviors that occur on more than one occasion and which collectively instill fear in the victim or threaten the victim/target's safety or mental health. Stalking can also include threats of harm to the target's friends and/or family. These behaviors include, but are not limited to none- consensual communications (face to face, phone, email, social media); threatening or obscene gestures; surveillance; sending unsolicited gifts; "creeping" via social media/cyber-stalking, and uttering threats.

Survivor: Some affected by sexual violence may choose to identify as a survivor. Individuals might be more familiar with the term "victim." We use the term survivor throughout this Policy and its related Protocol where relevant because some affected by sexual assault believe they have overcome the violent experience and do not wish to identify with the victimization. It is the prerogative of the person affected in these circumstances to determine how they wish to identify.

Complainant: An individual who brings forward a complaint that alleges Sexual Assault or any other kind of Sexual Violence has taken place.

Member of Canadian Career Education College: Employees, students, volunteers, consultants, contractors, visitors, and any other persons at Canadian Career Education College.

Respondent: An individual against whom a complaint has been made alleging the commission of Sexual Assault or any other kind of Sexual Violence.

Canadian Career Education College Policy Administrator: An employee and/or representative of Canadian Career Education College acting in the course of their duties.

The designated staff of the CCEC handling such matters: Policy Administrator

Student Rights and Responsibilities Office (SRRO): Responds to alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct and assists students in understanding their rights and responsibilities, which contribute to their overall wellness and academic success. SRRO contributes to maintaining safe and respectful campus environments, thereby enhancing the student experience and minimizing the impact on the broader Canadian Career Education College community.
